PREFACE

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ELLEN DUDLEY CLARKE,

Historian General,

Elected to Office April, 1917,

Died January 15, 1919.

No organization ever lost a more loyal and devoted member than did the Daughters of the American Revolution when Ellen Dudley Clarke was taken suddenly, in her zenith, and, it seemed to those who loved her, with her life not yet all lived and her work in the world not yet completed.

Daughter of Joseph Carpenter and Sarah Buell (1776-1847), his 2nd wife.

Joseph Carpenter (1764-1834) enlisted 1781 at the age of seventeen years in Capt. Solomon Wales' company, Colonel Chapman's regiment, and 1782 in Lieut. Moses Hall's company for guard duty. He was born in Stafford, Conn.; died in Lancaster, N. Y.

"See No."—indicates a reference to that number in the same volume.

"Also No."—indicates the National Number of a "Daughter" who has entered the Society on the same ancestor and whose lineage has been published in a former volume. This is done to link together widely scattered families. If the number should be 4006, it will be in the fifth volume; if 5005, in the sixth volume, etc.

"Real Daughters" are those whose fathers rendered service in the cause of Independence, and their names are printed in italics in the text and index. There are ten "Real Daughters" in this volume.
